

Vanderbilt Law School | Vanderbilt University Campus, Nashville, Tennessee

Vanderbilt University's urban campus is surrounded on all sides by restaurants and shops. There is surface parking for students in front of the law school building at 131 21st Avenue South, and a covered parking garage is located one block away.

Getting to Vanderbilt Law School via the Interstates

From the north, take I-65 to I-40 east to exit 209B. Turn right on Broadway (U.S. 70S).

From the east or south, take I-40 west to exit 209A. Turn left on Broadway (U.S. 70S).

From the west, take I-40 east to exit 209B. Turn right on Broadway (U.S. 70S).

Once on Broadway, stay in the right-hand lane until you bear to the right at the intersection where Broadway splits into West End Avenue. Move into the left lane, and continue on West End Avenue to 21st Avenue South (a one-way street). Turn left on 21st Avenue South and drive one block. The law school is on the right. If the designated visitor spaces in front of the law school are full, you'll find surface parking across the street, and covered parking at Terrace Place and Wesley Place.

The Student Recreation Center offers seven acres of outdoor space and 130,000 square feet of indoor facilities, including a pool and fitness training facilities; tennis, basketball, squash and racquetball courts; and personal trainers, classes, pick-up games and intramurals.

