

The Fulbright Vanderbilt Law LL.M. Award

- The Award: Vanderbilt Law School's Master of Laws (LL.M.) Program has partnered with Fulbright Belgium to offer a $30,000 grant for eligible students to pursue the LL.M. degree at Vanderbilt Law. Eligible students must be a citizen of Belgium or Luxembourg, and must hold a first degree in law from a foreign (non-U.S.) jurisdiction. Fulbright will also offer the successful candidate a travel stipend, sickness and accident insurance, J-visa sponsorship, and access to global Fulbright programming in Belgium and the United States.
- The Program: Vanderbilt LL.M. students benefit from an intensive program designed to provide the language and academic skills needed to succeed in a demanding educational program at a top U. S. law school. Vanderbilt offers three LL.M degree tracks:
- Course Track: Course Track students focus exclusively on course work, choosing their courses from the law school's extensive curriculum. A faculty adviser or a law school administrator will help you tailor your academic program to your career goals and intellectual interests.
- Law and Business: This track offers intensive academic and professional training in corporate law, securities regulation, finance, accounting, and the principles of corporate governance.
- Thesis Track: Thesis Track students complete a substantial research project that culminates in a scholarly paper. You will work closely with a faculty adviser with expertise in your area of study while choosing courses that support your research interests, conducting legal research, and writing a scholarly paper.
- The Campus: Located on the Vanderbilt University campus in Nashville, Tennessee, the law school combines the advantages of a stimulating university community, a top-tier faculty, a small, carefully selected student body, and a vibrant, livable city.
- Contact: To apply, submit an application through the www.fulbright.be website and indicate your intention to apply to indicate your intention to apply to Vanderbilt University.
